

OFFICE OF THE
UTAH STATE AUDITOR

Statement from the Office of the Utah State Auditor

For Immediate Release

February 11, 2013

Over the weekend, the Office of the Utah State Auditor was made aware of citizen concerns about utility billing and city accounting practices in Eagle Mountain City. As this has recently been brought to our attention, the Office is currently reviewing the complaint to make a determination how best to proceed.

The Office of the Utah State Auditor takes seriously any improper or questionable use of public funds. Any individual who has knowledge of the improper use of public funds can report such concerns to our Hotline, by visiting hotline.utah.gov.

About the Office of the Utah State Auditor

The Office of the Utah State Auditor provides Utah taxpayers and government officials with an independent assessment of financial operation, statutory compliance, and performance management for state and local government.

With an experienced team of financial, forensic, and performance auditors, we are a constitutional watchdog, ensuring that taxpayer funds are being spent legally, efficiently, and effectively.

The Utah State Auditor is a Constitutional Officer of the State of Utah, elected directly by the state's citizens every 4 years. The role of the Utah State Auditor is authorized in Article VII, Section 15 of the Utah Constitution. For more information, visit auditor.utah.gov.
